Please note: If and when you qualify for ADA certification, it is not a guarantee that origin to destination services will be available in your service area. Please check with your local paratransit operator to ensure which areas are covered. At the discretion of the paratransit company, limitations may also apply where the paratransit vehicle is unable to safely navigate to/from a specific location.

The following terms may be used during the application process and are defined as follows

Personal Care Attendant (PCA) - The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) defines a personal care attendant (PCA) as someone designated or employed specifically to help a person with his or her personal needs. If you have a family member, friend or neighbor who helps you or if someone has been hired to help you with certain activities, they would qualify as a personal care attendant (PCA).

Public Bus - A bus that runs along a fixed route with a specific schedule of stops.

Paratransit (Dial-a-Ride) - A transportation service which operates in response to calls from passengers to the local transit operator. Vehicles pick-up passengers and transport them to their destinations. The vehicles do not operate over a fixed route or on a specific schedule.
